Is Travel Insurance Worth it?

Whether you choose to roam alone or explore the world as a family, nobody expects to have an emergency while travelling. Our TravelStar® Travel Insurance plans give you peace of mind, with coverage that best suits your travel needs. From emergency medical to trip cancellation insurance, we've covered the bases so you can get out there and enjoy your adventure.

It can be tempting to hope everything works out as planned, but here are some reasons why buying travel insurance is worth it:

- Saves you money! Provincial health plans only cover basic costs and medical care in another country can often be thousands of dollars. So can the cost to rebook a last-minute flight home. Travel insurance has you covered for that and more.
- Helps you plan ahead. Focus on planning your adventures and let us plan for the unexpected. Buy your plan before leaving home so you can enjoy your travels knowing you've got coverage if you run into an emergency while away.
